SENATE BILL 671 ON THIRD READING

Senator Brooks moved that the regular order of business be suspended and that S.B. 671 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

S.B. 671, Relating to clarification and authorization relating to drugs and devices necessary to perform dialysis for persons with chronic kidney failure.

The bill was read third time.

Senator Brooks offered the following amendment to the bill:

Strike all below the enacting clause of S.B. 671, as amended, and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. The Texas Kidney Health Care Act (Article 4477-20, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) is amended by adding Section 4.1 and 4.2 to read as follows:

Sec. 4.1 Sections 3(a) and (d), Chapter 425, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 4476-14, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 255, Acts of the 67th Legislature, Regular Session, 1981 (Article 4542a-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and other applicable prohibiting laws do not apply to dialysates, devices, or a drug or drugs exclusively used or necessary to perform dialysis that a physician prescribes or orders for administration or delivery to a person with chronic kidney failure if:

(1) a manufacturer or wholesaler is registered with the board and lawfully holds the drug or device;

(2) the manufacturer or wholesaler delivers the drug or device to:

(A) a person with chronic kidney failure for self-administration at the person's home or specified address, as ordered by a physician; or

(B) a physician for administration or delivery to a person with chronic kidney failure; and

(3) the manufacturer or wholesaler has sufficient and qualified supervision to adequately protect the public health.

Sec. 4.2(a) With respect to dialysates, devices, or a drug or drugs exclusively used or necessary to perform dialysis covered in Sec. 4.1, the Board shall promulgate such rules or regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, as are necessary to ensure the safe distribution of such drugs and devices without interruption of supply, including manufacturer or wholesaler licensing, records, evidence of delivery to the patient or patient's designee, patient training, specific product and quantity limitation, physician prescriptions or order forms, adequate facilities, and appropriate labeling to ensure necessary information is affixed to or accompanies such drugs or devices.

(b) If the Board finds any drugs or devices distributed pursuant to this Act to be ineffective or unsafe for their intended use, the Board may institute immediate recall of any or all of such drugs or devices distributed to individual patients under authority of this Act.

(c) The dialysates, devices, or drugs which are the subject of Section 4.1 shall only be delivered by (1) the manufacturer or wholesaler to which the physician has issued an order; or (2) by a carrier authorized to possess such dialysates, devices, or drugs under the provisions of Section 4, Chapter 425, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 4476-14, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

SECTION 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.
